

From "All the Year Round"

In 1859 Charles Dickens incorporated Household Worlds into a new weekly journal, All the Year Round, for which Elizabeth Gaskell remained a prolific contributor until 1863. Her contributions included a serialised novel, A Dark Night's Work, and the shorter pieces in this collection. Among these, Lois the Witch is one of Gaskell's strongest works - a heartfelt story of a young English girl who becomes of a victim of the Salem witch trials.... - Summary by Phil Benson
